Douglas L. Campbell

Contact Information

Assistant Professor
New Economic School
47 Nakhimovsky Prospect
Moscow, Russia

Mobile: +1-812-679-8861
E-mail: dolcampb@gmail.com
Web: http://dougcampbell.weebly.com/

Research Interests

International Economics, Economic History, Open-Economy Macroeconomics, Macroeconomic Growth and Development.

Education

The University of California, Davis

Ph.D., Economics, June 2014

- Job Market Paper: Relative Prices, Hysteresis, and the Decline of American Manufacturing

  In this study I use new measures of real exchange rates to investigate the decline of American manufacturing employment in the early 2000s, comparing it to the smaller decline in the 1980s. I find that US manufacturing sectors with greater initial exposure to trade in the 1970s and late 1990s were disproportionately affected by temporary increases in relative unit labor costs in manufacturing, and that the adverse impact on employment was persistent. The appreciation of US relative prices and wages can plausibly explain the collapse in American manufacturing employment in the early 2000s.

Boston College

B.S., Economics, Asian Studies Minor, May 2003

- Cum Laude, Honors Program
- Freeman Asia Scholarship, Semester Abroad, Waseda University, 2002
- Fulbright Fellowship, Kobe University, 2003-2004

Peer-Reviewed Publication

"Estimating the Impact of Currency Unions on Trade: Solving the Glick and Rose Puzzle." World Economy, 36: 1278-1293, October 2013.

Other Publications

"On the Causes of Secular Stagnation: China, Relative Prices, and the Collapse of Manufacturing." VoxEU. Apr. 15, 2014.

Campbell, Doug, David Jacks, Chris Meissner, and Dennis Novy. "Output vs. Trade Costs in the Great Depression and Today." VoxEU. Sept. 19, 2009. (10 Google Scholar Citations).

Campbell, Doug and Andrew Claster. "Using Social Pressure to Turn Out the Vote: Evidence from a Randomized Controlled Experiment." 2010. Presented at the Analyst Institute, Washington, DC, (research not publicly available).

"History, Geography, and Trade." Guanajuato Workshop for Young Economists Conference Volume, Oct., 2009.

"History, Culture, and Trade: A Dynamic Gravity Approach." Economic History Association Annual Meeting Poster Abstracts, 2009.

Working Papers

"Adverse Trade Shocks, Unit Labor Costs, and Inequality in American Manufacturing," 2014.

"Through the Looking Glass: A WARPed View of Real Exchange Rate History," 2014, with Ju H. Pyun.

"The Diffusion of Development: Along Genetic or Geographic Lines?" 2012, with Ju H. Pyun. Revise and Resubmit at the Journal of International Development.

"Why Isn't the Whole World Developed? Lessons from Similarity in Soil Suitability"

"History, Culture, and Trade: A Dynamic Gravity Approach." (2010, 14 Google Scholar Citations).

Research in Progress

"Collapse: The Local Economic Consequences of Real Exchange Rate Movements."

"Winning the Battle with Gastroesophageal Reflux Disease: A Survivor's Tale." E-book.

Referee Services

European Review of Economic History

Professional Experience

The President's Council of Economic Advisers, Executive Office of the President (EOP), Washington, DC, http://www.whitehouse.gov/administration/eop/cea

Staff Economist 2011

- Prepared the President's Daily Economic Briefing (DEB)
- Prepared cabinet-level presentation on the decline in American manufacturing
- Co-Authored memos on European debt crisis and Fed appointments
- Fact-checked Presidential speeches and Op-Eds, and provided research assistance

The Democratic National Committee, Washington, DC

Modeling Analyst, DNC Targeting 2010 Midterm Elections

- Prepared turnout models for 18 Senate races and district-specific models for all tier-1 and tier-2 House races
- Designed and implemented randomized controlled trials
- Formulated targeting strategy, synthesizing theory and data

Visiting Appointments

Visiting Scholar, Berkeley Economic History Lab May 2013-present

Teaching Experience

The University of California, Davis, Davis, CA

Teaching Assistant March 2007 to present
(sample student evaluations available upon request)

- Sample of courses: Macroeconomic Theory, International Economic Relations, Public Economics, Industrial Organization, Money and Banking, World Economic History (Industrial Revolution and post-Industrial Revolution)
- Associate Instructor Development Series Training Certificate, July 2012

Skills

Software:
- Stata, VBA for Excel, Matlab, SQL, Latex

Languages:
- Japanese (Intermediate), Spanish (Basic), Chinese (Basic)

Security Clearance

Department of Defense National Security Clearance (Enquire for Level)

Media Appearances

- CBS, Face the Nation, interviewed by Bob Schieffer with Tim Kaine, 2010
- RT, Capital Account with Lauren Lyster, multiple appearances in 2011
- NPR Marketwatch, Sep. 2013