

FACT SHEET 2023-2024

INSTITUTIONAL	DETAILS
Name	Universitat Pompeu Fabra (UPF)
City, Country	Barcelona, Spain
Website	https://www.upf.edu
About the university (2016-2017 data)	 UPF is a modern, high-quality public university that was founded in 1990. It focuses on the knowledge areas of the social sciences and humanities, communication and information technologies, and health and life sciences. It has 12,500 enrolled students in 30 undergraduate studies, 33 Masters (EHEA) and 9 PhD programmes. UPF welcomes more than 1,800 international mobility students per year, and 38% of their undergraduate students have done an exchange abroad. UPF ranks in the Times Higher Education ranking 2018 as the 1st Spanish university (152th worldwide and 65th in Europe).
INTERNATIONA	L RELATIONS SERVICE
Website	http://www.upf.edu/web/international/
Institutional Coordinator	Sara López
Erasmus inter- institutional renewal agreements	Fatou N'Gum fatou.ngum@upf.edu
Incoming and outgoing students	Meritxell Cama oma.incoming@upf.edu (Exchange students at UPF) oma.outgoing@upf.edu ( UPF students selected for exchange)
Mobility and Reception Offices (OMA)	Ciutadella Campus (Jaume I building) Ramon Trias Fargas, 25-27. 08005 Barcelona Phones: +34 93 542 24 11 22 03 25 04. This office assists students attending: • Faculty of Economic and Business Sciences • Faculty of Humanities • Faculty of Humanities • Faculty of Law • Faculty of Political and Social Sciences • Faculty of Political and Social Sciences • Faculty of Health and Life Sciences (located at Mar Campus) Poblenou Campus (Roc Boronat building) Roc Boronat, 138. 08018 Barcelona Phone: +34 93 542 12 64 This office assists students attending: • Faculty of Communication • Faculty of Translation and Interpretation • Polytechnic School

Office hours:

Mondays to Fridays: 10.00 a.m. – 1.00 p.m.

Mondays to Thursdays: 4.00 p.m. – 5.00 p.m. (Ciutadella office only)

FACT SHEET 2023-2024

ACADEMIC INFOI	DMATION AND ADDI ICATION DDOCESS
	RMATION AND APPLICATION PROCESS
Academic calendar	It is divided in three terms: September – December January – March April – June
	Each term consists of 10 weeks of classes and 2 weeks for the exams.
	Orientation days are planned to welcome exchange students at the beginning of each term. Attendance to these sessions is compulsory.
Academic	https://www.upf.edu/web/incoming/exchange-students-academic- information information
Course offer	r
	Faculty of Communication
	(Degrees: Advertising and Public Relations, Audiovisual Communication & Journalism)
	Faculty of Economic and Business Sciences
	(Degrees: Business Management & Adm., Business Sciences, Economics, and Int. Business Economics)
	Faculty of Health and Life Sciences
	(Degrees in Human Biology and Medicine)
	Faculty of Humanities
	(Degrees in Humanities and Global Studies)
	• Faculty of Law
	(Degrees in Criminology and Public Prevention Policies, Labour Relations and Law)
	Faculty of Political and Social Sciences
	(Degree in Political and Administration Sciences)
	Faculty of Translation and Interpretation (Degrees in Applied Languages and Translation and Interpretation)
	Polytechnic School
	(Degrees in Audiovisual Systems Engineering, Biomedical Engineering, Computer Science and Telematics Engineering)

Credit system	ECTS	ECTS
Usual work load	60 ECTS per year - 20 EC	60 ECTS per year - 20 ECTS per term
Grading system	The Spanish grading system is based on a scale from 0 to 10, where 5 is the minimum passing mark.
	UPF grading system	UPF grading system
	Excellent * (Excel·lent / Sobresaliente)	9 -10	А
	Good (Notable / Notable)	7 -8.99	В
	Pass (Aprovat / Aprobado)	5 -6.99	C, D and E
	Fail (Suspens / Suspendido)	0-4.99	FX and F

FACT SHEET 2023-2024

	*The top 5% of the class can get a Honours mark (Matrícula d'Honor / Matrícula de Honor)
Deadlines for nomination	Students coming to UPF for: First term: 30th April Second and/or third term: 30th September Sent it to: oma.incoming@upf.edu
Application	After students are nominated by their home university, UPF will contact them directly with further information about the on-line registration and the necessary documents.
Deadlines for registration	Students coming to UPF for: First term: 30th May Second and/or third term: 30th October
Enrolment	Students are requested to enrol on-line prior to arrival, on a first-come first-served basis. UPF recommends a maximum of 20 ECTS per term. Courses from other faculties are restricted and upon availability.
Language of teaching	Courses are taught in English, Spanish or Catalan. The University recommends exchange students to have at least a MCER B1 level of Spanish or a B2 level of English.
Language learning	Exchange students can enrol in Spanish and Catalan courses at the Languages UPF programme (www.upf.edu/pei/). There are specific courses targeting UPF exchange students at a reduced price.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Visa Students from the EU do not need to apply for a visa. Students from outside the EU will have to apply for a visa. Students from outside the neough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (legal formalities for foreigners) Health cover Students from a Member State of the European Union, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland and entitled to coverage under the social security system of their country, then they can apply for a twice set on the second security system of their country, then they can apply for a twice set on the social security system of their country, then they can apply for a twice set on the social security system of their country or lost/stolen property. State-provided healthcare during a temporary stay in Spain, it is NOT an alternative to travel insurance. It does cover NEITHER accidents NOR any private healthcare or costs such as a return flight home country or lost/stolen property. Students which are citizens of a country outside the EA or Switzerland, then they must find out whether there exists a mutual health provision agreement between the Social Security system of their country and Spain (this is the cas of a number of Latin American countries). If such an agreement exists, they can obtain a document from the relevant authorities in their country entitling them to free medical coverage in Spain. All international students including Erasmus, are required to have full coverage of eventual risks during their stay in Spain and UPF will check that at least an accident and travel insurance has been contracted to complement the EHIC. More information at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (Health Coverage). Housing The Mobility and Reception Office does not provide any accommodation service directly. However, UPF is a member of the BCU, a	Integration activities	The Language Volunteering at UPF organizes leisure and cultural activities for exchange students and offers a language tandem programme, so an international student can meet a local student and an exchange conversation in each other's language.
EU will have to apply for a student visa. Please note that a tourist visa is not enough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (legal formalities for foreigners)Health coverStudents from a Member State of the European Union, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland and entitled to coverage under the social security 		individual request depending on special needs. Please contact oma.incoming@upf.edu during the nomination process detailing which disabilities and needs should be covered. Final acceptance will be done on a case
EU will have to apply for a student visa. Please note that a tourist visa is not enough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (legal formalities for foreigners) Health cover Students from a Member State of the European Union, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland and entitled to coverage under the social security system of their country, then they can apply for the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). While the EHIC card gives EU citizens access to medically necessary, state-provided healthcare during a temporary stay in Spain, it is NOT an alternative to travel insurance. It does cover NEITHER accidents NOR any private healthcare or costs such as a return flight home country or lost/stolen property. Students which are citizens of a country outside the EEA or Switzerland, then they must find out whether there exists a mutual health provision agreement between the Social Security system of their country and Spain (this is the case of a number of Latin American countries). If such an agreement exists, they can obtain a document from the relevant authorities in their country entitling them to free medical coverage in Spain. Housing The Mobility and Reception Office does not provide any accommodation service directly. However, UPF is a member of the BCU, a public service that assists international students coming to Barcelona. It manages the Resa Housing Service with a wide range of flats and rooms to rent and information about student residence halls. UPF has direct agreements with some residence halls. More information: https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (Housing) Students should plan the following monthly expenses (approximate): European Read the and core of a souce in a student residence hall. Nore i
EU will have to apply for a student visa. Please note that a tourist visa is not enough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (legal formalites for foreigners) Health cover Students from a Member State of the European Union, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland and entitled to coverage under the social security system of their country, then they can apply for the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). While the EHIC card gives EU citizens access to medically necessary, state-provided healthcare during a temporary stay in Spain, it is NOT an alternative to travel insurance. It does cover NEITHER accidents NOR any private healthcare or costs such as a return flight home country or lost/stolen property. Students which are citizens of a country outside the EEA or Switzerland, then they must find out whether there exists a mutual health provision agreement between the Social Security system of their country and Spain (this is the case of a number of Latin American countries). If such an agreement exists, they can obtain a document from the relevant authorities in their country entitling them to free medical coverage in Spain. Housing The Mobility and Reception Office does not provide any accommodation service directly. However, UPF is a member of the BCU, a public service that assists international students coming to Barcelona. It manages the Resa Housing Service with a wide range of flats and rooms to rent and information about student residence halls. UPF has direct agreements with some residence halls. More information: https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (Housing) Students should plan the following monthly expenses (approximate): European Reson in a shared flat Room in a student residence hall
EU will have to apply for a student visa. Please note that a tourist visa is not enough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (legal formalities for foreigners) Health cover Students from a Member State of the European Union, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland and entitled to coverage under the social security system of their country, then they can apply for the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). While the EHIC card gives EU citizens access to medically necessary, state-provided healthcare during a temporary stay in Spain, it is NOT an alternative to travel insurance. It does cover NEITHER acidents NOR any private healthcare or costs such as a return flight home country or lost/stolen property. Students which are citizens of a country outside the EEA or Switzerland, then they must find out whether there exists a mutual health provision agreement between the Social Security system of their country and Spain (this is the case of a number of Latin American countries). If such an agreement exists, they can obtain a document from the relevant authorities in their country entitling them to free medical coverage in Spain. Housing The Mobility and Reception Office does not provide any accommodation service directly. However, UPF is a member of the BCU, a public service that assists international students coming to Barcelona. It manages the Resa Housing Service with a wide range of flats and rooms to rent and information about student residence halls. UPF has direct agreements with some residence halls. More information: https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (Housing) Students should plan the following monthly expenses (approximate):
EU will have to apply for a student visa. Please note that a tourist visa is not enough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (legal formalities for foreigners)Health coverStudents from a Member State of the European Union, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland and entitled to coverage under the social security system of their country, then they can apply for the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). While the EHIC card gives EU citizens access to medically necessary, state-provided healthcare during a temporary stay in Spain, it is NOT an alternative to travel insurance. It does cover NEITHER accidents NOR any private healthcare or costs such as a return flight home country or lost/stolen property. Students which are citizens of a country outside the EEA or Switzerland, then they must find out whether there exists a mutual health provision agreement between the Social Security system of their country and Spain (this is the case of a number of Latin American countries). If such an agreement exists, they can obtain a document from the relevant authorities in their country entitling them to free medical coverage in Spain. All international students, including Erasmus, are required to have full coverage of eventual risks during their stay in Spain and UPF will check that at least an accident and travel insurance has been contracted to complement the EHIC. More information at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (Health Coverage).HousingThe Mobility and Reception Office does not provide any accommodation service directly. However, UPF is a member of the BCU, a public service that assists international students coming to Barcelona. It manages the Resa Housing Service with a wide range of flats and rooms to rent and information about student residence halls. UPF has direct agreements with som
EU will have to apply for a student visa. Please note that a tourist visa is not enough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (legal formalities for foreigners)Health coverStudents from a Member State of the European Union, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland and entitled to coverage under the social security system of their country, then they can apply for the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). While the EHIC card gives EU citizens access to medically necessary, state-provided healthcare during a temporary stay in Spain, it is NOT an alternative to travel insurance. It does cover NEITHER accidents NOR any private healthcare or costs such as a return flight home country or lost/stolen property. Students which are citizens of a country outside the EEA or Switzerland, then they must find out whether there exists a mutual health provision agreement between the Social Security system of their country and Spain (this is the case of a number of Latin American countries). If such an agreement exists, they can obtain a document from the relevant authorities in their country entitling them to free medical coverage in Spain. All international students, including Erasmus, are required to have full coverage of eventual risks during their stay in Spain and UPF will check that at least an accident and travel insurance has been contracted to complement the EHIC. More information at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (Health Coverage).HousingThe Mobility and Reception Office does not provide any accommodation service directly. However, UPF is a member of the BCU, a public service that assists international students coming to Barcelona. It manages the Resa Housing Service with a wide range of flats and rooms to rent and information about student residence halls. UPF has direct agreements with som
EU will have to apply for a student visa. Please note that a tourist visa is not enough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (legal formalities for foreigners)Health coverStudents from a Member State of the European Union, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland and entitled to coverage under the social security system of their country, then they can apply for the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). While the EHIC card gives EU citizens access to medically necessary, state-provided healthcare during a temporary stay in Spain, it is NOT an alternative to travel insurance. It does cover NEITHER accidents NOR any private healthcare or costs such as a return flight home country or lost/stolen property. Students which are citizens of a country outside the EEA or Switzerland, then they must find out whether there exists a mutual health provision agreement between the Social Security system of their country and Spain (this is the case of a number of Latin American countries). If such an agreement exists, they can obtain a document from the relevant authorities in their country entitling them to free medical coverage in Spain. All international students, including Erasmus, are required to have full coverage of eventual risks during their stay in Spain and UPF will check that at least an accident and travel insurance has been contracted to complement the EHIC. More information at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (Health Coverage).HousingThe Mobility and Reception Office does not provide any accommodation service directly. However, UPF is a member of the BCU, a public service that assists international students coming to Barcelona. It manages the Resa Housing Service with a wide range of flats and rooms to rent and information about student residence halls. UPF has direct agreements with som	COST OF IIVING	-
EU will have to apply for a student visa. Please note that a tourist visa is not enough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (legal formalities for foreigners)Health coverStudents from a Member State of the European Union, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland and entitled to coverage under the social security system of their country, then they can apply for the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). While the EHIC card gives EU citizens access to medically necessary, state-provided healthcare during a temporary stay in Spain, it is NOT an alternative to travel insurance. It does cover NEITHER accidents NOR any private healthcare or costs such as a return flight home country or lost/stolen property. Students which are citizens of a country outside the EEA or Switzerland, then they must find out whether there exists a mutual health provision agreement between the Social Security system of their country and Spain (this is the case of a number of Latin American countries). If such an agreement exists, they can obtain a document from the relevant authorities in their country entitling them to free medical coverage in Spain. All international students, including Erasmus, are required to have full coverage of eventual risks during their stay in Spain and UPF will check that at least an accident and travel insurance has been contracted to complement the EHIC. More information at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (Health Coverage).HousingThe Mobility and Reception Office does not provide any accommodation service directly. However, UPF is a member of the BCU, a public service that assists international students coming to Barcelona. It manages the Resa Housing Service with a wide range of flats and rooms to rent and information about <th></th> <th></th> <th></th> <th></th>
EU will have to apply for a student visa. Please note that a tourist visa is not enough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found at https://www.upf.edu/barcelona (legal formalities for foreigners)Health coverStudents from a Member State of the European Union, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland and entitled to coverage under the social security system of their country, then they can apply for the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). While the EHIC card gives EU citizens access to medically necessary, state-provided healthcare during a temporary stay in Spain, it is NOT an alternative to travel insurance. It does cover NEITHER accidents NOR any private healthcare or costs such as a return flight home country or lost/stolen property. Students which are citizens of a country outside the EEA or Switzerland, then they must find out whether there exists a mutual health provision agreement between the Social Security system of their country and Spain (this is the case of a number of Latin American countries). If such an agreement exists, they can obtain a document from the relevant authorities in their country entitling them to free medical coverage in Spain. All international students, including Erasmus, are required to have full coverage of eventual risks during their stay in Spain and UPF will check that at least an accident and travel insurance has been contracted to complement the EHIC.	Housing	directly. However, UPF is a member of the BCU, a public service that assists international students coming to Barcelona. It manages the Resa Housing Service with a wide range of flats and rooms to rent and information about
EU will have to apply for a student visa. Please note that a tourist visa is not enough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found	Health cover	Students from a Member State of the European Union, the European Economic Area (EEA) or Switzerland and entitled to coverage under the social security system of their country, then they can apply for the European Health Insurance Card (EHIC). While the EHIC card gives EU citizens access to medically necessary, state-provided healthcare during a temporary stay in Spain, it is NOT an alternative to travel insurance. It does cover NEITHER accidents NOR any private healthcare or costs such as a return flight home country or lost/stolen property. Students which are citizens of a country outside the EEA or Switzerland, then they must find out whether there exists a mutual health provision agreement between the Social Security system of their country and Spain (this is the case of a number of Latin American countries). If such an agreement exists, they can obtain a document from the relevant authorities in their country entitling them to free medical coverage in Spain. All international students, including Erasmus, are required to have full coverage of eventual risks during their stay in Spain and UPF will check that at least an accident and travel insurance has been contracted to complement the EHIC.
Men Chudente frame the Eliste metric and the second of the deside of the deside frame the first state of the second state of t	Visa	enough to stay in Spain for over three months. More information can be found				